

WINE TASTING

2008 Free Run Riesling (Cowra Bronze Medal) –
More akin to a sauvignon blanc than a Clare or Eden Riesling $10/$80

2009 Free Run Riesling
Sweeter than the 08 but still only 2 gms per litre residual sugar $7/$70

2007 Cabernet Sauvignon - One of the only Coonawarra Cab Sauv's to weather the frosts of 2007, this is a beauty - and has really enjoyed life in barrels. $14/$120

2008 Cabernet Sauvignon - A lighter style with less wood and more fruit, and a tell-tale mintiness absorbed from the surrounding Comaum forest. $12/$120

2006 Reserve Cab Sauv – *The Tax Collector. A member of the illustrious Wickenby Collection!(1/2 case) LONDON SILVER MEDAL
Nice chewy tannins front to back. Great balance of berry and herbs. $22/$240

2008 Shiraz - A light, easy drinking Coonawarra Shiraz with the tell-tale mint/eucalyptus notes of the Comaum forest. $10/$110

2008 Reserve Shiraz - “The Deputy Commissioner”
Velvety, fleshy cherry fruit flavours with a lingering oak astringency. $22/$240

The HUNDRED of Comaum Coonawarra Estate

Welcome to the Hundred of Comaum Vineyard cellar door. Our vineyard is in Coonawarra, about 14 kms north of here. In our cellar door you can taste up to 14 wines (depending on availability) - the majority of which are grown and barreled on the property.

The cost of $5 per person is fully offset on any wine purchased, and prices given are for one or 12 bottles.

How do you pronounce “Comaum”? Comaum is pronounced “Com” + “Orm”. It is a Scottish word, with its only meaning today being the place, Comaum, in South Australia.

What is a “Hundred”? South Australia was originally divided into land tenure maps/parishes called "Hundreds". There were a hundred HUNDREDS of differing sizes and shapes. You are now in the Hundred of Penola. It ends and becomes the Hundred of Comaum about 6kms North up the Riddoch Highway.
